From A Grateful Heart ~

"...for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might:

which he worked in Christ by raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every authority, power, and dominion, and every name that can be - in this age and in the one to come.

The Father has put all things beneath his feet and gave him authority over all things as head of the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way"

(Ephesians 1:19-23)

The Divine and Human Jesus is present for us

Jesus was by all outward appearances – a man! But, the ascension proves that he is more than that.He is God, in our human flesh! A human being is determined by time and space. We live, we die, in this place and then in that place! We have a past and perhaps a future.

Jesus did have all that humans have - but now, he is in heaven – that means a place of no time and space – eternity. No time! But, Jesus crossed and defeated that barrier for us! As (God) also Eternal, Jesus is now – Always in the present and never changing, never less than perfect, always the truth always the best of love and mercy and wisdom.

The Angels remarked – “Why, men of Galilee do you look up at the sky? This Jesus has gone to heaven.” Heaven – is where eternity is. Not a place that has a space in time but an everlasting present, now and always the same. Jesus does not change.

How can Jesus go from human, of time and space to divine, with no place or change? Because, he has proven himself to be God! He is both Human (taking on his own creation) and Divine – God can do that!

Jesus left us the proof of His presence in the Old Testament, where he reveals himself many times and predicts his coming to restore our favor with God, to send us an Advocate and Save us from destruction to sin. He then became visible to us In Jesus Christ. He walked among us and told us about our nature in his moral teachings and commandments. He also left us the Church (his living body). He put twelve of his students (the apostles) in charge of leading the way – as he taught us- and placed Peter as the foundation, he is the rock, he is the chief Shepherd as Christ commanded him to: “feed my sheep”

We are called to see that Jesus is not only present in our historical history, but present always and the same....! The Ascension proves that God has visited us and is now always present to us – overseeing His Church from Heaven. Heaven in your midst!

Jesus taught us to pray – may Thy Kingdom Come and to proclaim to the whole world. But not by words spoken, but by words lived. To proclaim the message of Jesus is to live it. Learn it, read – then live it – love. That is how to proclaim the living God and Jesus Christ.

May the Heart of The Savior Bless you, in this Easter Season!

He is Risen, Alleluia!Fr. Patrick Nelson, SDS

We have a program for the care of the sick & homebound. At this time we are particularly interested in those who might be in need of this ministry. Please contact Mary at the parish center, 461-6073 or Deacon Frank at 262-385-5696.

If you would like to become a member of St. Margaret Mary Parish— please call Mary at 461-6073 in the parish center for a new member packet. New member forms are also in the narthex.

Deacon Paul Wilkin grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio within a Catholic family of eight children separated by 14 years, he is #7 of 8. He has an inclination for geography and art. In his youth he played baseball, in high school he ran track, played in the band was on city youth/adult soccer teams for years. He has earned an associate's degree in commercial art before returning to college for night classes to earn his bachelor's degree in graphic design.

Paul lived in the British Virgin Islands for a year then on rural Vashon Island near Seattle, WA for 18 years which is accessible only by ferry boat. Before the Salvatorians, Paul was the owner and graphic designer of a sole proprietorship full-service marketing and design firm – Gargoyle Design – for 17 years. His hobbies include: photography, motorcycle touring, woodworking, gardening, genealogy, fossibl hunting and preference for old time radio programs, movies and TV shows.

Paul rediscovered his faith when Fr. Richard R. Roach SCJ, retired Marquette Theology scholar, gave "homi-lectures" at mass in the small rural Vashon Island, WA church. The spark towards a religious life calling came one night while he was researching companies in which to submit his resume (edited version, unedited version ask Paul). After four years of varied discernment the Salvatorians were appealing because of their international presence and as Paul said, "With my diversity of being a jack-of-all-trades" I'm drawn to the Salvatorian words 'by all ways and means.' "

Paul joined the Salvatorians in 2013 to discern his calling as a Priests or as a Brother. Called to priesthood, the Salvatorian formation process would take seven years from Candidature, Novitiate, First/Temporary profession, Final profession, Transitional Diaconate through Ordination to the Priesthood. Paul has had diverse ministries both locally as well as three summers in Vietnam and a year in Manila, Philippines studying Theology with other Salvatorian seminarians. He has one more semester of seminary after Ordination and feels called to be a Salvatorian Apostle and to minister in Vietnam or Asia.
