GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE

DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Are you guilty of spiritual stockpiling? Spiritual stockpiling isn't an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas. It's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread."

This life isn't an immediate arrival. And as much as we might try to shore up possessions and pleasures, we know the journey is unpredictable. Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? After all, "What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish?... how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" At the Last Supper, Jesus said he would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give.

Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you... he will give up to him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to provide for us, today and always.

ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA

This week we celebrate a spiritual master! Not only is St. Ignatius Loyola the founder of the Jesuits, but the legacy of his life of prayer -- now called Ignatian spirituality -- inspired believers the world over. Injured as a young soldier, Ignatius spent his time in recovery reading the lives of the saints. They inspired his soul to holy heroism, changing his life forever. Ignatius gathered a group of friends who also desired to be "contemplatives in action," finding God in all circumstances. This became the Jesuits -- a great missionary and teaching order. Ignatius himself was constantly attuned to his own inner promptings. This self-knowledge -- open to the movements of the Holy Spirit -- led him to be an incredibly astute spiritual director. For Ignatius, recognizing God as the first principle of one's life determined everything. How has God changed you?

Parish Sponsored Back to School Supply Drive

Our parish family will assist our parish school this fall by collecting school supplies. There are many sales starting soon. There is a list of requested supplies in the narthex area. Please look over the list and bring those items back to church and deposit in the marked boxes. If you wish to make a cash contribution please make your check payable to St. Margaret Mary School. If you have any questions, you may contact Mary Blinkhorn at the parish center office: 414-461-6073.

LECTORS AND EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED

Are you looking for a way to spiritually enrich your life and the lives of others? Not much extra time to commit? Consider becoming a Lector or Eucharistic Minister for Masses at St. Anne's Salvatorian Campus, 3800 N. 92nd Street, Milwaukee. Mass is celebrated daily Monday thru Friday at 10:30AM and on Sundays at 9:45. If you are interested or have questions contact Fr. Arturo Ysmael, SDS directly at 417-425-4641.

Empowered: Refreshed, Renewed, Restored

Join national speakers for a two-day charismatic conference at the Mary Mother of the Church Pastoral Center on August 2 and 3. This conference includes talks, workshops, Eucharistic Adoration, Mass, praise and worship, and exhibits. All are welcome. Ticket and schedule information can be found at CCRMilwaukee.com.

(Sunday Worship is the 3rd Commandment)

Now that the weather is warmer, it's time to get out and explore!

Did you know one of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee's 175th Anniversary Exploration routes run through the northwest area of Milwaukee and then into Ozaukee County?

The Yellow Route includes stops at St. Robert, Shorewood, Our Lady of Good Hope, Milwaukee, St. Joseph, Grafton, and St. John XXII (St. Mary and St. Peter of Alcantara locations), Port Washington.

There's no need to complete the entire route at one time. You can check it out one church at a time, and choose the distance you want to explore that day.

If you end up exploring all 175 miles and 37 stops by December 15, 2019, you could even win a prize!

For more information, and to download the routes, go to 175.archmil.org.
