From A Grateful Heart
 “Remain in me, as I remain in you.
 Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine,
 so neither can you unless you remain in me.
 I am the vine, you are the branches.
 Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit,
 because without me you can do nothing.
 Anyone who does not remain in me
 will be thrown out like a branch and wither...” (John 15:4-6a)

Remain in Me, for You Can do Nothing

Mother’s Day approaches next week and as we celebrate those who gave us life, and those who remember their mothers who have gone, we realize that life comes to us not from us! That is, life is a gift from another!

Whether it is our mother’s that gave birth to us or the God of Life, we can understand the Gospel for this weekend. John’s gospel gives us Jesus’ parable of the “vine and the branches”. Life and all nourishment for the branches comes from the vine. So too, God is the very source of life – not just in the beginning of humanity, but the beginning of life for every creature that has life.

Nourishment from the branches continues to come from the vine just as the strength to do good comes from the graces of God. Grace is God’s nourishment for the soul. Evil is our perversion of that strength in our choice to refuse goodness.

Jesus brings us the message of his offer to be with us through the end of time. His nourishment is a guarantee and without his nourishment we would wither for lack of grace to the soul. You can even see how a life withers away when it pursues greed, lust and selfishness. The humble and generous among us are what keep a society healthy and growing. Just like the fruit of grapes on a branch of a grape vine. The ancient Jews were wine producers so they could really heard what Jesus meant in the parable.

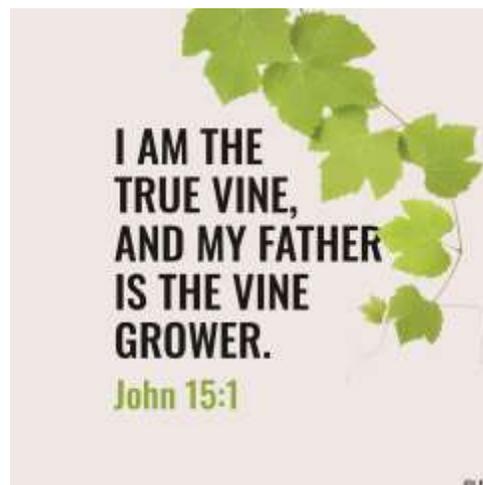

Today, we need to look at our lives with new vision. A vision of Jesus. Do we recognize our need to grow in God’ nourishing grace? Are we connected, as a Church and as the Body of Christ? Are we grateful and sincere in our praise of God and love of one another?

Life has many beginnings and we are called to restart our efforts to learn from Jesus every year as we celebrate His birth, life, suffering, death and resurrection. (The Season of the Church Year: Christmas, Ordinary Time, Lent, Passion and Easter Times)

HAPPY MOTHER DAY to all mother who gave us life. And to the Mother of God, Mary Most Holy, who gave her flesh to the author of Life – Jesus Christ!

We continue our celebration of Easter for three more weeks, until Pentecost, Alleluia!

May Our Risen Savior Bless you!
 Fr. Patrick Nelson, SDS

GOSPEL MEDITATION

5th Sunday of Easter

“Spiraling out of control,” is a phrase that can easily describe the current display of human existence. In addition to the violence, unrest, uneasiness and turmoil that are common elements of our daily news, other essential pieces are misplaced or missing. Many lack an objective center around which to order and structure their lives or a clear set of definable goals or mores to act as guideposts and life directives. It appears that “feelings” have become a “new god” and traditional structures and ideals set aside. It is almost as if history only shows that we got this whole thing wrong and many are determined to finally set things right. The real truth, however, is that while wrongs and errors are certainly a part of our often-checked past, it is hardly the case that all was wrong. It is not our task to rewrite the history of our lives, but to learn from mistakes that were made, and preserve the perennial wisdom at the root of our successes. Learning is an essential part of being human.

The question becomes, however, from whom do we learn? Some have such a hard time placing God in that position, but that is precisely where God needs to be. God is the Master Teacher from whom all of humanity learns and gets its cues. It is in and through this relationship with the Gardener of Life that we are fashioned and pruned into the people we are intended to be and can be. It is only in God that we are able to find our best selves. Sadly, many think that religion too, as well as history in general, has also gotten all this wrong. Yet, our resurrection faith tells us differently. We are reminded, today especially, that we are meant to remain in Christ as Christ remains in us. We are also reminded that Jesus, the Incarnate God, is the vine upon which we grow, the branches that flow from the source of God’s life.

Giving up our will to God’s can be a painful endeavor. It is not easy to set our own desires and wants aside and allow God to step in and direct and guide our growth. But this is the only way to prevent deadly weeds from overtaking us and bringing us to a place of self-destruction. God’s commandments are the very guideposts and benchmarks we need, yet many seek to remove them from all public view because they appear to limit self-expression and suppress what is considered by many to be “human freedom.” They are the only way we can find freedom, however. And, until we learn this fundamental lesson, we will continue to spiral out of control, never really knowing who we are, what our potential can be or how life really can be lived. We will not know peace.

SAINT
DE PAUL

Be the Heart: Support or
Join the Mission of the St. Vincent de Paul Society

The last Sunday of April is known as Ozanam Sunday. A “super volunteer” of his time, Frederic Ozanam and six companions founded the St. Vincent de Paul Society in 1833. Blessed Frederic’s vision was to “establish a network of charity and social justice to circle the world.” His vision reached the United States in 1845 and today there are 44 well-established “St. Vinnie’s groups in Milwaukee County. St. Vincent de Paul conference members are unhesitant to show Christ’s love to people experiencing poverty, suffering and need. In this turbulent time of the COVID-19 pandemic they continue to reach out to members of our community. Do you long to see Christ’s face in others? Is your heart burning with zeal for Christ’s mission? Has your heart been moved with compassion during this time of need? We invite you to follow your heart and serve with us. Contact Meredith Bishop at 414-463-7985 or reach out to any other St. Margaret Mary Vincentian to offer your support or to learn more about the Vincentian way of service. As always, thank you for your continued support of our work through your very generous financial contributions which allow this outreach to continue.
