From A Grateful Heart

HUMBLE YOURSELF TO GOD TO DO GOOD!

Beloved:

*Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist,
there is disorder and every foul practice.
But the wisdom from above is truly pure,
peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy
and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity...
You covet but do not possess.
You kill and envy, but you cannot obtain;
Still, you fight, wage war and you do not gain peace because you do not ask. You ask, still but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.
Humble yourselves before the Lord and he will exalt you.
(James 3:16-17, 4:1-3, 10)*

Last week I offered a thought of letting God speak to us. Do we listen to God speak or are we still deaf to the Word and then, again, dumb in living our Discipleship?

The readings from James for these past few weeks are straightforward in the message to live out our discipleship from the instructions of Christ in the Scriptures. This message today is just as needed as it was to the first Christians, who were the intended audience of the Letter of James. Living the instructions of Jesus can be taken as advice or commands. James takes them as commands since they are instructions from Jesus who is the Almighty and Eternal God!

We all want peace, yet it won't happen without sacrificing our pride. We all want prosperity, yet it won't come without working together as partners in building a society of justice to all. We all want to live the words of Jesus, but that can't happen if we are always judging the actions of others. If we want the world to reject injustice, sin, and oppression we have to be the example amidst a world that is in direct conflict with all the values our faith demands. Yep, we need to "walk the walk and talk the talk" before it can happen at all!

This is the tough message of St. James to the Church in Jerusalem, where the Church began. Jesus is who we preach, the Church is our teacher, and love will judge our actions in living as members of Christ in Baptism.

James had to be firm since the leaders of the Jews killed Christ and hoped to extinguish His message. Their power and position were threatened by the message of God given to Moses. They had added many other domestic laws that equaled the command of God (in the 10 Commandments). Jesus came to renew God's call for a Church of love and outreach, which made it necessary to replace the domestic laws with the twelve apostles and begin a New Covenant.

The Letter of James (who is not an apostle) is written to the new Jewish convert to Christ across the Jewish and Greek worlds. So, it contains many of the first teachings of the Church, which are echoed in the Old Testament and the Letters of St. Paul. I highly recommend reading all of it, especially chapter 2:14-16, which Martin Luther left out of his translation of the Bible.

Us too! Let us be not just listeners but doers of the Word of God. (James 1:22).

May Our Risen Savior Bless you!

Fr. Pat Nelson, SDS

Ask Fr. Pat

Pretend you are a first time visitor to a Catholic Mass. Could you explain why we do what we do or would your response be, "That's the way we've always done it." If you have questions about the Catholic faith, about Catholic rituals, about Catholic Tradition, or about Scripture, ask Fr. Pat! If you are curious, others are, too!

Email: AskFrPat@gmail.com

Questions and answers may be featured in upcoming bulletins. Submissions will always remain anonymous.

PONDERINGS OF THE HEART

Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.
~Mark 9:37

One of the things this week's Gospel confronts us with is the idea of righteousness. According to the Oxford Dictionary, righteousness means "(of a person or conduct) morally right or justifiable; virtuous." Today, we tend to encourage people to be ambitious and think of themselves first. We often hold up people we consider successful as people to model. Certainly ambitious and successful people can also be righteous, but the conflict between the model of living that Jesus shows us is often at odds with secular expectations, which can make trying for both a nearly impossible task. When the burden is heavy, remember the child and choose as Jesus has taught us! ~Jacque

The Prayer Shawl Ministry is an opportunity to share your simple knitting and/or crocheting skills while praying for those who are ill, who are caregivers, and others who could use prayers. Whether you are a seasoned fiber artist or someone who is just curious, you are invited to attend the monthly Faith & Fiber Fellowship gathering on the third Tuesday of each month to pray and socialize as we work on our shawls. Those interested in learning to knit or crochet are welcome! Yarn is available for your use. The
