ANNOUNCEMENTS

Come share your simple knitting/crocheting skills while praying for those who are ill, who are caregivers, and others who could use prayers. We meet monthly on the third Tuesday of each month to pray and socialize as we work on our shawls. Those interested in learning to knit or crochet are welcome! Yarn is provided.

Is Now the Time?

- Are you new to the Catholic faith?
- Are you looking for answers about Catholicism?
- Are you trying to separate fact from fiction?
- Are you an adult who may or may not have received some of the Sacraments of Initiation into the Catholic Church (Baptism, Eucharist, and/or Confirmation), but is discerning if now might be the time to do so?

If you answered yes to any of these, let's talk! I would enjoy meeting you and joining you on your faith journey. No pressure; just some conversation. The coffee is my treat! Email jkelnhofer@stmmp.org or call (414) 461-6073 ~Jacque Kelnhofer, Pastoral Coordinator

Volunteer Help Wanted

Do you have some time to spend volunteering with our Pastoral Coordinator? Jacque is looking for approximately four hours of flexible administrative support, weekly. The tasks involve organizing, sorting, restocking, and typing. The software programs used are Microsoft Word, Publisher, and Google Calendars. Familiarity with these are helpful but not necessary if you are a quick learner. All instruction/direction is provided. If you have the time and interest, please contact Jacque Kelnhofer (see cover) for more information.

Seeking Prayer Warriors

For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them. Mt. 18:20

Prayer is the most powerful weapon in our spiritual arsenal. As STMMP continues to develop how to serve our parish and surrounding community, we need to put our plans to prayer. We are seeking a committed group of individuals to join us in praying intercessory prayers as a part of their personal, daily prayer life. Specific intentions will be provided to aid your prayers. Additionally, we will gather as a small group once a month to pray together. Contact Jacque Kelnhofer (see cover) if you are interested in this vital ministry.

“Pray for...” List

Beginning February 5/6, we will include a weekly “Pray For” column in the bulletin. If you would like community support through prayer, please contact Mary Blinkhorn (see cover) to request that your name be added to the list. To respect the privacy of each person, you may only request to have your name added to the bulletin. You may not submit names of others. If the matter resolves and you are no longer wanting additional prayer, please let Mary know and she will remove your name. To ensure that this list remains current, it will be cleared and restarted quarterly.

New to Daily Mass - Anointing

Friday, January 28th

Beginning this month, we will begin celebrating the Sacrament of Anointing following the 8:15 a.m. Mass on the last Friday of each quarter: January, April, July, and October. If you attend daily Mass and would like to be anointed, please plan to stay after Mass on Friday, January 28th. Others in attendance are encouraged to stay and pray with those being anointed. Prayer is powerful!

SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING

Anointing of the Sick (anointing)

In two weeks, January 29/30, we will celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing after all liturgies.

Anointing of the Sick I: The Mystery of Illness

We get hurt. We wear out. The lungs, the eyes, the memory, and any of the many limbs and organs that compose us break or ache. Gloom comes over us then: pity for ourselves, sorrow, depression, anger. But hope can come, too, and courage, and sometimes peace.

All of this is marked and celebrated in the rites of our tradition. With a word and a deed, with touch and breath and spit and mud, Jesus heals those who ail. In every place and time, we who are the church remember and tell stories of healing, anoint the sick with oil and share the one bread, even with those who cannot assemble for Mass. Thus the sick and the healthy, the homebound and the spry, saints and sinners are made one and remain one, a single body of many parts.

Anyone who is seriously ill can be anointed, including the elderly who become weaker, even if no illness is present; those waiting for surgery when a serious condition is the reason for the operation; sick children who have sufficient use of reason to be helped by the celebration; and those who are unconscious or who have lost the use of reason, provided that they probably would have asked for the sacrament had they the use of their faculties. Furthermore, many forms of mental illness are now known to be serious. So the mentally ill may be anointed, provided that they will be helped and not harmed by the rite. If you have questions, consult a priest or other parish leader.

The most complete celebration of the sacrament is a communal one, a celebration in which those to be anointed are surrounded and supported by other members of the Christian community, whether at home, or in the house of the church (for those who can leave their beds and come here). In song and in silence, with scriptures and prayers, we strengthen the bonds of love and faith that are stronger than the most lethal disease and more powerful even than death.

Home for the Holiday's Cookbook

Have you picked up your copy of the STMMP Home for the Holiday's Cookbook? You will have until January 29/30 to get yours, then they will go in the vault until next year. Thanks for your contributions, there are many delicious recipes to try! You do not want to miss out on this treasure.

Planning Ahead: Pay attention to the things that become favorites this year because next year we will be requesting additional recipes to help grow our cookbook.

Lost & Found

Have you lost something at Mass? If you have, it may be in our Lost & Found. Please see a Hospitality Minister if you are missing something.

COVID Protocol at STMMP

Though there is no official mask mandate, we strongly encourage all parishioners to wear masks out of an abundance of caution and care for the health and well-being of our entire community. We have masks available at the main entrance of the Church and hand sanitizer available throughout the campus. Help yourself! We also ask that people observe social distancing when choosing seats and processing in lines.

Thank you for continuing to "love your neighbor."
